

First Open Call for composition of the Western Balkans Youth Orchestra

Western Balkans go Dance

General Regulations

The Western Balkans Youth Orchestra's aim is to create during the WBYO Accelerando project a long-term platform for young composers from the region of the Western Balkans and to promote a unique creative music exchange between audiences, composers and performing musicians.

Led by the artistic team of the WBYO (Artistic Director, invited orchestra tutors and jury members) the intention of the WBYO 1st call for composition is to provide impulses for the creation of new works for symphonic orchestra based on the folk dances' diversity of the Western Balkans, their musical and rhythm beauty.

In addition, the call offers the opportunity of performing of awarded pieces with the 2023 WBYO during its summer concert tour. Thus, also gaining a new perspective on one's own work.

The six awarded works will be presented to the public during the summer 2023 WBYO concert tour in the Western Balkans (Durrës, Skopje, Pristina, Sarajevo, Kotor, Novi Sad) and also in Germany (Berlin Konzerthaus & Essen Philharmonic)

Young composers from the region of the Western Balkans (born or originating) aged from 18 to 36 years old by 31 December 2023 are invited to compose/arrange pieces for large symphonic orchestra based on folk dances of the Western Balkans reaching in this way new audiences through the WBYO's original concert formats and programs.
